Team biography:

Tomas Hazleton

Chief Risk & Compliance Officer

Tomas is a highly experienced risk and regulation executive with over 25 years of experience implementing and enhancing governance, risk and compliance arrangements for banks and investment firms in London and New York.

Tomas was most recently Chief Risk Officer and a member of the Executive Committee of C. Hoare & Co., the UK's oldest bank, where he was directly responsible for Risk, Compliance, Anti-Money Laundering, Data Protection and Complaints Handling and had oversight responsibility for the bank's entire second line of defence.

Previously, Tomas held senior risk management roles with several UK firms, including Threadneedle, GAM, Bank of America Merrill Lynch and AllianceBernstein. While based in New York, he held senior roles at General Motors Asset Management, DTCC and Citigroup.

Soon after arriving in the UK in 2006, Tomas became a founding member of the UK Investment Management Association's Operational Risk Working Group and later served on its Prudential Risk Advisory Group and Risk & Regulation Committee. He is currently a member of the European Risk Management Council.

Tomas received his MBA from Columbia Business School, where he has served on the advisory boards of the Chazen Institute for Global Business and the Center for International Business Education & Research (CIBER), and also received a B.A. in Economics from Rutgers College in New Jersey.
